

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
"documentary" days
before the election
is not free speech.
It is blatant
propaganda.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This false and damaging
description of one of our Presidential candidates, and its airing too close to the election to be refuted, are not
serving but skewing
the public interest.

Step in to defend us, as your commission's purpose demands. Requiring all the stations
Sinclair owns to follow their derogatory
presentation with one that is honest
and favorable to Kerry would provide balanced viewing; in lieu of that,
blocking the showing of so one-sided a presentation either completely or until after the election
would prevent injury
to the candidate and the public.
